

Lots of curling events yet at Middleton club

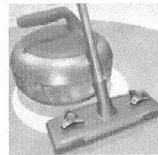

It is melting outside and it is hard to believe that the curling season is winding down. March break is approaching for schools and the leagues finish at the end of the month. But before that happens there is still a lot of activity at Middleton Curling Club. The Seniors' league, ever a sociable group, will be participating in a "Home and Home" with Bridgetown for the next two weeks. The format is an afternoon of curling, coffee, and snacks at Bridgetown and then a return engagement at Middleton the following week.

The Juniors and Little Rocks are joining forces to put on a Family Fun Day on March 17, with curlers from both leagues plus family members who would like to join in. The funspiel will be two four-end games with members of both leagues on each team, as well as additional curlers from the families and the club. Lunch will be served between the games with pizza and snacks for all and at the end, bragging rights for good curling and maybe even a picture in the paper. Watch this space!

Middleton Curling Club is committed to its Junior and Little Rock programs in order to keep youth interested in the sport at a time when TV coverage and national attention has never been higher. In order to be able to provide the infrastructure and support for these student programs in the

Throwing Rocks

Karen Sotvedt
Middleton
Curling Club

club, this year and into the future, the club is holding a raffle with limited tickets and big BIG prizes: a 32 inch LG-TV, 3500 watt generator, power washer, 10-inch tablet, eco-friendly electric fire, and Kobo readers. Photos can be seen by going to [\[middletoncurlingclub.com\]\(http://middletoncurlingclub.com\). The \$10, limited edition tickets can be purchased at the club or through club members and proceeds ensure a future for youth curling in the area. The small number of tickets sold gives very good odds of winning.](http://www.middle-<div data-bbox=)

This coming Sunday, March 10, Little Rock coordinator Dawn Spidle is holding an afternoon of curling-inspired games for her league and the Juniors. Junior coordinator Fred Hole had suggested "Glow Curling" and so the two leagues will be treated to an afternoon of games outside the usual formats, with less concentration on the rules of curling and more outlets for just plain fun.

Coming up in the following weeks: the Spring is Here Funspiel, another Big Breakfast, and the Provincial Intermediate Championships. The energy continues to be high at www.middletoncurlingclub.com