

time teammates like Jenna Doureau, Jackie Stevens and others to continually challenge her.

makes this place so special.
Scovil, a midfielder, has played soccer, up to and includ-

game.
In addition to schoolwork and soccer, Scovil has fully embraced

pus of the University of New Brunswick, which she will begin in early January. Her research

much, and to take the opportunity to be able to give something back."

CURLING

'Up on the rooftop' at Middleton Curling Club?

Karen Sotvedt
Throwing
rocks

As curlers pause for Christmas,
Throwing Rocks columnist
Karen Sotvedt penned the little ditty:

DOWN IN THE ICESHED

(to the tune of "Up on the Rooftop")

Down in the iceshed
curlers pause,
Out comes a brand new
list of draws.
Off to the clubhouse
to find their teams,
Time for the tournament
of their dreams!

Hard, hard, hard!
Set that guard!
Hard, hard, hard!
Set that guard!
Down in the iceshed —
sweep, sweep, sweep,
Middleton curlers

can't be beat!
First comes the skip
with calls to yell,
Oh, dear Lead,
please play them well.
Give all the others
some great takeouts, Banishing all of
those curling doubts!

Hard, hard, hard!
Set that guard!
Hard, hard, hard!
Set that guard!
Down in the iceshed —

sweep, sweep, sweep,
Middleton curlers
can't be beat!

Next draw, the lights
in the shed are dim,
How can we see
in this glorious glim?
But wait! On the ice
all is a purple light,
Ah, what a special
Glow Curling night!

Hard, hard, hard!
Set that guard!
Hard, hard, hard!

Set that guard!
Down in the iceshed —
sweep, sweep, sweep,
Middleton curlers
can't be beat!

Now to the bar
to rejoice and drink,
Oh, just hear
that sociable clink!
President Cody declares a toast,
"Joy to the world,
and the sport we host!"

Karen Sotvedt is a member of the Middleton Curling Club.

